

Asian American Architects/Engineers Association Presents:

“Mixed” Feelings – Commercial Development Outlook

Thursday, March 20th, 2014 - 11:30am-1:30pm

About the Program:

Demand for revitalizing the urban marketplace is on the rise. The convenience for Southern Californians and visitors to live, work, and play in urban environments along with the accessibility to public transportation has become a relative must. Whether it's mixed use, hospitality, or adaptive reuse Projects, Developers have recognized the ongoing public demand and focused their investments accordingly.

Come and hear from the leading professionals in the industry about their assessment of the current marketplace, their outlooks and forecasts for development, and learn of what future opportunities their Projects can provide for the AEC Community.

Panelists:

Robert Ritner, AIA – Head of Architecture & Design Services, Singpoli Group, LLC

Jason Bohle – Vice President, Development & Acquisitions, Combined Properties
